Artist Statement

In their most recent work, Glover and Malinowski have staged small vignettes that unveil personal encounters in public spaces. The mixed media pieces sew together delicately rendered drawings and gem-like photos onto the same surface. The work is intended to hold conversation between the two artists as well tell an intimate story as you travel through each piece.

Both artists have carried solo careers in their respective media for the past 7 years, but relish an opportunity to work together on collaborative art projects. This is their fifth body of duet artwork.
